CRIME PREVENTION TIPS

On October 16 at approx. 11:19 A.M. the victim was parked at the Shell Station in the 8500 block of Katy Freeway in Hunters Creek Village. While getting gas, a large white pick-up pulled alongside her car and she later discovered her purse missing from the front seat. The suspect vehicle was described as a white Nissan Titan pick-up. The driver is described as a black male. There is no other information at this time. This incident is very similar to other incidents in the Houston area.

Residents should be careful to never leave anything of value laying in the seats or open areas of an unlocked or locked vehicle. Always be very aware of your surroundings especially large vehicles that pull closely alongside your car while it is parked. Resident are encouraged to immediately call police if they witness any unusual or suspicious behavior.
